Tutoring Experience

Over the past 9 years, I have tutored students in various international curricula, focusing on IB English and other English Literature courses. I have supported students in achieving high marks in exams and refining their essay writing and analytical skills, ensuring they meet academic expectations.

I've also worked with students preparing for IGCSE and A-Level English exams, tailoring lessons to cover key topics and themes. My students consistently demonstrate significant progress, often going on to further their studies in top universities with a solid foundation in English literature and writing.
