Tutoring Experience

Over the last 10 years, I've worked with students from diverse backgrounds, helping them excel in IB Maths and other international exams such as A-Levels and IGCSE. My focus has been on building strong mathematical foundations while ensuring students grasp challenging topics like calculus and linear algebra.

Additionally, I've helped students prepare for AP Calculus, ensuring they understand core concepts and perform well in their exams. My experience working with students from multiple curriculums has allowed me to develop effective strategies tailored to individual needs, ensuring their success.
